PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Members,

Congratulations Steelers Fans!! What a great game – probably the best Super Bowl game I have ever seen!

I would like to thank James Wolfe for an excellent program last month on the Future of Refrigerants. He presented some rather interesting information on R-22 as well as other refrigerants and what the future has in store for us as specifying Engineers. The presentation will be on our website for those who are interested.

This month we change gears for our annual joint meeting with our local Pennsylvania Society for Professional Engineers (PSPE) chapter. One of our region's most prominent members, Andrew Persilly will be speaking on the future job market for sustainability. Please consider coming out and supporting both chapters.

Also at this meeting, we will be awarding scholarships to two deserving student members.

See you at the meeting!

-Chris Albright
Chapter President
