President's Message

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

Dear Members,

Thanks to all who attended last month's meeting. We had a great showing of members for an interesting topic presented by one of our Chapter Chairs. For those who were unable to attend, the presentation can be found on our website at:

<http://johnstown.ashraechapters.org/>.

This month's meeting promises to be another great topic for our first joint meeting with our ASPE friends. They have lined up Gretchen McCall from EarthSafe Systems, Inc. to speak about Fuel Oil System Components and Design. I hope to see you at Rizzo's.

Lastly, I would like to point your attention to our current Research Promotion Campaign. Our Research Promotion Committee headed by Amanda Cronauer is on track to make the Johnstown Chapter one of Region III Leaders in terms of Research Promotion dollars per area assigned member again this year. Please contact Amanda or check out our website to find out how you can help our industry continue to be a leader in the funding of HVAC research projects. She can also help you understand where your money goes.

Thanks to all & see you at the meeting!

Kyle E. Koval

Energy Efficiency Incentives

The Energy Efficiency Incentives from FirstEnergy's Pennsylvania utilities are entering their last lap. Phase 2 programs will come to close May 31, 2016, so it's important to act now.

Join them for lunch to learn:

What is energy efficiency? Join them for a deeper understanding of what it means to be energy efficient and why it's so important.

Funding options available: Listen to guest speakers from the Sustainable Energy Fund and The PA Dept. of Environmental Protection explain how to obtain funding for energy efficient improvements.

The future is Phase 3: They'll discuss how the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission is structuring Phase 3 programs which begin June 1, 2016.

They have 15 seminars planned in Pennsylvania from September 22 to October 22, 2015. Register for one below:

The Value of Certification

ASHRAE certification programs were founded to meet industry need as identified through market research and today provide value to many important stakeholders. Developed by subject matter experts, including those recruited from allied professional organizations, ASHRAE certification programs benchmark with the ANSI/ISO accreditation standards for personnel certification programs to help ensure quality. For the past 100+ years ASHRAE has worked hard to earn and maintain a worldwide reputation for being the leader in HVAC&R design. ASHRAE certification programs serve to reinforce that reputation.

Value for Certification Earners

The decision to pursue a certification – on top of all of their other commitments - is not one lightly made by busy professionals, but the benefits of getting certified are many:

- Greater confidence in competence in critical job knowledge, skills and abilities
- Portable credential recognized and valued by employers
- Competitive edge and respect among peers, in the workplace and among potential clients
- Heightened job satisfaction

Value for Building Owners

Building owners want to know who they should hire to design critical building systems that will impact occupant comfort, safety, efficiency and - ultimately – profitability. Hiring a firm that assigns an ASHRAE-certified professional to a project confers the following benefits:

- Increased confidence in critical job knowledge, skills and abilities
- Compliance with applicable local, state and federal requirements
- Confidence in corporate commitment to the professional development of its employees and to providing the best possible resources for projects
- Disciplinary process to follow in case of complaints

Value for Employers

Hiring - and retaining - the right employees is an expensive proposition with many unknowns.

Taking ASHRAE certification into consideration during the process – and embracing it in the corporate culture - confers the following benefits to HR, the hiring manager and the employer:

- Recruit the most-qualified professionals
- Elevated reputation and credibility among current and potential customers
- Enhanced compliance with applicable local, state and federal requirements
- Greater job satisfaction and resulting lower turnover
- Provides clear, value-added professional development path
